PROJECTS

ATM Simulator

Developed an ATM Simulator application using Java and MySQL that allows users to sign in and perform various banking operations such as deposits, withdrawals, fixed deposits (FD), and more. The application also supports new user registrations, generating a unique card number and PIN for new accounts. Java swing is used for User Interface.

File Hiding Application using JAVA

The project is a Java-based application that offers a secure user authentication system with OTP verification and file management functionalities including hiding files, showing hidden files, and un-hiding files. The MySQL Database is being used here to store the hidden files.

Personal Portfolio Website

This is personal portfolio website to showcase my skills, provide an overview of my work, and offer an easy way for visitors to contact me for professional opportunities. The website is built using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to create a visually appealing and interactive user experience.

Stock Market Prediction Model

The project comprises of a custom stock market prediction model that leverages Convolutional Neural Networks (CNN) and machine learning techniques to forecast future stock values. The model is designed to analyze historical stock data to identify patterns and trends that can predict future market behavior.
